

References

Books

Lastname, Initial(s). (Year). Title. Place of Publication: Publisher.

Example:

Ryle, G. (1949). The Concept of Mind. London: Hutchinson & Co.

When there are more authors:

Lastname, Initial(s), & Lastname, Initial(s). (Year). Title. Place: Publisher.

Example:

Curry, H. B., & Feys, R. (1958). Combinatory Logic. Amsterdam: North-Holland.

Translated Books

Lastname, Initial(s). (Year). Title. (Initial(s) Lastname, Trans.). Place: Publisher (Date of Publication of the Original Work).

Example:

Boscovich, R. J. (1966). A Theory of Natural Philosophy. (J. M. Child, Trans.). Boston: MIT Press 1966 (Original work published in 1763).

Articles in Anthologies

Lastname, Initial(s). (Year). "Title." In Editor's Initial(s) Lastname (Ed(s).), Title of Anthology (Pages). Location: Publisher.

Example:

Swinburne, R. (1980). "Properties, Causation, and Projectibility: Reply to Shoemaker." In Cohen, L. J. & Hesse, M. (Eds.), Applications of Inductive Logic (313-320). Oxford: Clarendon Press.

Articles in Periodicals

Lastname, Initial(s). (Year). "Title of Article." Title of Periodical, Volume (Issue), Pages.

In case of periodicals with continuous pagination throughout the volume, the issue number may be omitted.

Example:

Putnam, H. (1995). "Pragmatism." Proceedings of the Aristotelian Society, 95, 291-306.